

Robert H. Dean, Jr., Director - Bob Dean joined Kelmar Associates, LLC in April 2007 and is located in Kelmar's Wakefield, MA office. Mr. Dean is the Director of an unclaimed property audit team and also contributes to firm policy regarding human resources and the structure of Kelmar's audit process. Mr. Dean received his BSBA in Management from Suffolk University in 1981 and his Masters in Taxation from Bentley College in 2003. He became a Certified Public Accountant in 1992.

Prior to joining Kelmar Associates, Mr. Dean served as Director in the Multistate Tax Services Practice at Deloitte & Touche, where he was responsible for client and project development and the sale and delivery of state and local tax services to Fortune 1000 clients. Mr. Dean also represented clients before state taxing authorities and obtained various rulings relative to a wide range of complex tax matters on behalf of his clients. Mr. Dean also specialized in developing and implementing state tax planning and minimization strategies for various clients. Prior to his career in public accounting, Mr. Dean worked for the Massachusetts Department of Revenue as an auditor and manager, in the Sales and Use Tax and Corporate Excise Tax Divisions, respectively.