

James P. Doody, Jr., Director - Jim Doody joined Kelmar Associates, LLC in March 2004 and is located in Kelmar's Wakefield, MA office. Mr. Doody is the Director of an unclaimed property audit team and also contributes to coordinating firm and client legal matters as well as to firm policy regarding training programs for new recruits. Mr. Doody received his BS in Accounting from Fairfield University in 1994. He then received his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law in 1997 and his LLM in Taxation from Boston University School of Law in 2003. Mr. Doody has been a member in good standing of the New York State Bar since 1998.

Prior to joining Kelmar Associates, Mr. Doody worked for six years at PricewaterhouseCoopers, ultimately serving as a Tax Manager where he developed and implemented state tax restructuring strategies for multinational corporations and drafted memoranda addressing tax, legal, accounting, and operational issues for Fortune 1000 clients. Mr. Doody also served as a Tax Associate with Deloitte & Touche where he was responsible for researching state tax issues, drafting private letter ruling requests and assisting with abandoned property escheat filings.