

David P. Kennedy, Principal - David Kennedy co-founded Kelmar Associates, LLC in October 2001 and is located in Kelmar's Wakefield, MA office. Mr. Kennedy oversees several audit teams and serves as the firm's General Counsel, managing all legal issues including matters of confidentiality and Kelmar's contracts with client states. Mr. Kennedy received a BA from the School of Arts and Sciences at Boston College in 1990. He then received his Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School in 1999. Mr. Kennedy has been a member in good standing of the Massachusetts Bar since 1999.

Prior to forming Kelmar Associates, Mr. Kennedy served as the Practice Leader for PricewaterhouseCoopers' New York Abandoned Property Consulting Services Group where he was responsible for the sale and delivery of abandoned property consulting services to Fortune 1000 clients, including audit defense, voluntary compliance, and the development of policies and procedures for future reporting. Prior to his career in public accounting, Mr. Kennedy worked for seven years at the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, first serving as a Budget Analyst for the Executive Office for Administration and Finance where he was responsible for conducting financial and performance analyses of various state agencies' policies, programs, operations, and administrative activities and reporting such to the Office of the Governor; then serving as Chief Financial Officer for the Executive Office of Public Safety where he was responsible for fiscal policy development as well as capital/operational budgeting for twenty state agencies and fourteen county sheriff departments, with an annual operating budget in excess of $1 billion.