

Mark S. McQuillen, Principal - Mark McQuillen co-founded Kelmar Associates, LLC in October 2001. Mr. McQuillen is the President of Kelmar Associates and is located in Kelmar's Wakefield, MA office. He is responsible for oversight and management of the firm's operation, public and client relations, and providing overall guidance to the firm's unclaimed property audit teams. Mr. McQuillen received his BBA through the School of Management at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1982. He soon after received his Juris Doctor through the New England School of Law in Boston, MA in 1988. Mr. McQuillen has been a member in good standing of the Massachusetts Bar since 1988 and of the Federal Bar since 1991.

Prior to forming Kelmar Associates, Mr. McQuillen served as the National Practice Leader of PricewaterhouseCoopers' Abandoned Property Consulting Service Group. He also served as the Abandoned and Unclaimed Property Regional Practice Leader for the Northeast Region at Deloitte & Touche. In both positions Mr. McQuillen specialized in the delivery of abandoned property consulting services to Fortune 1000 companies and was responsible for human resources, sales, marketing, and financial operations for his practice. Prior to working in public accounting, Mr. McQuillen served as Deputy Commissioner of Revenue for the Massachusetts Department of Revenue with wide oversight of the agency and its many statutory responsibilities.