

Jack I. Schwartz, Director - Jack Schwartz joined Kelmar Associates, LLC in February 2004 and is located in Kelmar's Sherman Oaks, CA office. Mr. Schwartz is the Director of an unclaimed property audit team and also contributes to firm policy regarding professional development, client relations, and training programs for new recruits. Mr. Schwartz received his BBA in Accounting through the School of Accounting and Finance at Walsh College in 1992.

Prior to joining Kelmar Associates, Mr. Schwartz served as a Senior Manager for the West Region of PricewaterhouseCoopers' Abandoned and Unclaimed Property Group, where he was responsible for marketing, managing and delivering unclaimed property consulting services to the firm's Fortune 1000 clients as well as developing and implementing policies and procedures to assist clients with future reporting requirements. Mr. Schwartz also served as a Manager for the West Region of Deloitte & Touche's Abandoned and Unclaimed Property Consulting Services Group where he managed national projects which included diagnostic reviews and quality assurance testing and analysis of clients unclaimed property compliance practices. Prior to working in public accounting, Mr. Schwartz served as a Tax Supervisor at Veterinary Centers of America where he managed sales and property tax return compliance, oversaw state audits, and administered the fixed asset accounting system for tax and financial reporting of the company.